(Schedule of team game times to be announced) minimum 2 games a day.

All games will be doubleheaders we may add an additional game on to some of these dates. In our semi-competitive league, players will compete against one another in games. The goal of the league is to have the players form a bond through their team play. They will learn Volleyball rotation and positions played on the court. They will continue improving their skills and enhance their understanding of the game. This is a fun semi competitive league. Players whom show a higher skill level may be moved up an age bracket. Players will be placed on a team that best fits their skill level. Contact Carrie Human at 815-623-5858 with any questions. Players will receive a shirt.
